

Charco del Palo

Nudism and Wellness on Lanzarote

Charco del Palo is a small village on the Lanzarote coast and lies far away from the tourist centres of the island. Here in the quietness and tranquillity of nature a little paradise was established for tourist who are looking for something different. The near-by nudist beach is one reason why this place is so popular amongst nudist holiday maker, but nudism is not obligatory and generally there are no barriers between naked and clothed bathing. Everything is as easy and as uncomplicated as possible.

The village consists of only 150 houses and apartments and still presents a piece of the original Lanzarote. Everything is close, the tough coastline represents the volcanic origin of the island and has many tidal pools that get filled with fresh water every high tide. They are very popular among tourists and residents. Many of the apartments are situated directly on the coast and offer amazing views of the sea.

Also divers are frequent guests to the crystal clear waters around Charco del Palo. Even snorkelling you can enjoy the underwater life of the Atlantic Ocean and see the bizarre structure that the lava formed when it floated into the sea.

In the village you find many different restaurants and shops and the coast invites you to take long walks. Around the natural and protected tidal pools people normally practise nudism.

At this beautiful place to rent a car is absolutely advisable to discover the nice corners of the island. The website you find mentioned on this page, offers you the possibility to find all the important pieces to build your perfect holiday right from home: Holiday houses at the seafront, apartments or individual bungalows in all sizes. Some of the houses also have private swimming pools.

Perfectly integrated in the village are also available wellness treatments and massages to make your relaxation complete. Ayurveda massages, wellness massages or feet reflex therapies are just some of the treatments that Gina Wiesmann offers. Get to know Charco del Palo, for some of the regular visitors there is no better place to spend their holidays.
